1678-1862

Introduction.

A Concern appearing on many Friend minds to revive the practice of Recording Births & Deaths of Friends belonging to Dover monthly meeting which had for a long time been much neglected, (a few individuals excepted); and never been regularly done, by which Omission great Inconveniencies & Difficulties had arisen in Determining who were the members of our Meeting. — Therefore the Monthly Meeting in the month 1786 procured this Book & appointed a Recorder to record all Births Deaths & Burials according to the ancient custom of Friends & advice of the present Discipline.

And now the Recorder being about to proceed on his work premises the following Observations.

That as the recorder of Births & Deaths were Imperfectly kept in the early part of Dover Monthly Meeting, & many never entered at all, he is under the Necessity of collecting from private records & ancient Friends verbal accounts in order to begin the work, to show from whence the present Stock of friends were Defended. —

It's not being able, Even by the best accounts he can procure, to ascertain all the Births & Deaths of friends that are Deceased, he therefore arranges their Names & names of their Children, in order that the Succession may appear, & whenever the Births & Deaths can be obtained are to be Inserted; blank remaining for that purpose. —

No regular minutes being kept of receiving & Disowning persons except in a few Instances, The Recorder is obliged ^{to presume} from any ^{or any} Circumstances or ancient persons Testimony he can Obtain, the time of many persons coming among friends or Leaving them, which matter of Owning the Truth & Leaving the same being generally a gradual work could not even at that time have been accurately persfied: as no minutes of Receiving & Disowning appears. Many it is presumed, Certainly Some, Obtained their membership, or left the same at their marriages, for some there were not the Children of friends, who conducted Orderly had the Liberty to marry among friends without any previous Acceptance and were thence forth Deemed members; and Others who married out, many of them Declined from friends & are no more noticed as belonging to them. Of which Circumstances the Recorder takes notice when he can with Authenticity.

Friends in the Advance of time growing more careful in preserving records of their proceedings, this record will therefore appear better displayed. Births Marriages Deaths & Burials arranged in such a manner that the Reader may find the Line of Friends from whence whence he sprung, of he is an offspring of friends & the families with which he is connected: who are the members of our Meetings, & who were their Predecessors, of which Circles Posterity it is probable will be advantaged, which is the design of the present Record.
